Republican Meeting.

Quite a large number of voters assembled at the Mansion House last evening to hear the Congressional question discussed. Hon, H. M. Aller presided and the reporters of various papers were elected secre-taries. The assemblage was addressed by Messrs. Lucien Baker, Wm. Dill, J. W. Taylor, J. L. Maxwell, McCown Hunt, D. R. Anthony, and Jas. F. Legate No other peakers and heartily endorsed audience was in favor of Leavenworth man for Congress, and in opposition to the re-election of the vernor. So strong was the latter then it was announced from the stand that gates in favor of his re-election the air was filled with hootings and groams.

The speeches made were fair and harmo-nious. The sentiment was unanimous to combine to nominate a Leavenworth man for Congress, and it was agreed that the elegates should be instructed to be neither opposed to anybody or in favor of any one an, but that they should be asked to use their own judgment for the best interests of Leavenworth county and city.

A. A. Mellier, Washington Av., City.— Dear Mellier: I have for some years been troubled with Catarth, and for the past two years have suffered Santonbys Remen's (Radical Cerra). I decided to try it. Thave used only two lottles, and as a result I feel so much relieved mobile that you take some measures to present relations and write get it more promisently before the public, that only node it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed to methelr high estimate of its value and good effects with them, but it perfectly agained to wants of with them.

I really think it particularly adapted to wants of St. Louis people, and they all ought to know of it, and those who need it should try it. I will risk the assertion that 800 let, visit sa a sample to be given away will sell as many bottles.

Try some plan. Let the people have it; they need it. I believe I could sell 260 bottles myself—of course you could largely increase this number.
Why not try it? Yours truly, WM. BOWEN.
